WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT CAFÉ PANINI

"Best sandwich place in Berkeley hands down. My favorite is the hot smoked turkey (I add roasted peppers in addition to the stuff that already comes on it). The salads and soups are good, too. Somehow, they are able to take a plain mixed baby salad and make it something great."

"This is the best tucked away little lunch secret in Berkeley that I know. I love their roma panini, and their cold pasta salad (which I seriously became addicted to for awhile). They also make great Italian sodas. It's such a nice place to head for a quick lunch on a sunny day — sit outside on their patio."

"Feta cheese, avocado, pea sprouts and a balsamic vinegar sauce on delicious bread! Heaven in a sandwich. Their patio courtyard is a wonderful place to hang out and eat on a beautiful day."

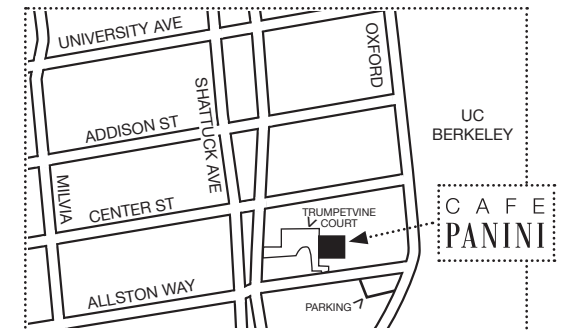

"Though hard to find (yes you really do go through Jupiter to get here) once in, Cafe Panini is a real treat. The sandwiches are great, the salads superb, and the price is right. Our two generous meals with iced tea came in under $15 — and my intern ended up taking half of her sandwich home for dinner."

"This is one of the best kept secrets in Berkeley."

"Awesome sandwiches! We went once and had the smoked turkey panini and the cold curry chicken prepared with a spicy mango chutney — so tasty. We returned and had the hot open-faced mushroom sandwich and the pear, walnut and bleu cheese salad. They were all delicious, lovingly prepared and carefully packaged to go."

"It is a little off the beaten trail, but when you walk into the courtyard, it feels like you just traveled to Europe. Such a cool location."
